

Ironbark decking

LB Timber
from $4.00

Description

Ironbark Decking delivers exceptional durability and a bold, wide-board aesthetic. This high-density Australian hardwood is renowned for its incredible strength, termite resistance, and weather endurance, making it an ideal investment for long-lasting outdoor decking. Featuring a rich color palette of deep reds, warm browns, and light tans, Ironbark creates a striking, natural appearance that enhances any outdoor space. Its tight grain and interlocking fibers ensure minimal shrinkage, cracking, or warping, even in extreme weather conditions. The 135mm wide boards offer a luxurious, seamless finish, reducing the number of visible joints and enhancing the overall visual appeal. Whether used for spacious decks, pool surrounds, or high-traffic areas, Ironbark is the ultimate choice for a durable, low-maintenance, and sophisticated decking solution.
